A Service Of IPTAY . . .

The 1965 TIPS ON THE TIGERS is being sent to all IPTAY members in an effort to inform those who support the Clemson athletic teams the football situation prior to the opening of the 1965 season.

For Press Radio and TV . . .

This is your 1965 TIPS ON THE TIGERS, our annual publication on the Clemson football team which we hope will assist you from time to time during the year as you follow the Tigers on the gridiron.

We hope you will see Clemson in action as much as possible this fall. We will honor requests for working press, radio and photographer passes from sports editors of daily newspapers and radio and TV sports directors ONLY. These requests should be made directly to the Sports Information Office, preferably a week in advance of the game concerned.

The press box is operated for the convenience of the working press. No women, other than accredited women sportswriters and Western Union operators, will be admitted in the press box at anytime. No one under 16 years of age will be admitted.

Please do not ask for more working press passes than you need. We want our press box to have as ideal working conditions as possible. You can make it more desirable for yourself and your fellow writer by not asking for press box tickets for your "traveling buddy" or "driver."

The press box is operated in accordance with recommendations of the Football Writers Association of America and the Atlantic Coast Sports Writers Association.

THE COVER

Cartoonist Phil Neel of the Birmingham Post-Herald strongly emphasizes Clemson's switch to the 'I' formation this season in his cover. Neel also indicates the Tigers went to four-post season bowls with the single wing and two more using the 'T' formation. Clemson fans are hoping the 'I' will bring additional post-season bowl teams.

Outlook for 1965 . . .

Clemson hopes to regain some of its gridiron prestige this fall which was lost last season when the Tigers suffered through their first losing campaign in a decade.

Frank Howard, not used to being on the losing end, starts his 26th year with a new offensive formation, going to the two platoon and with more new faces than the old woman in the shoe.

'Tis true the Tigers are counting on 25 lettermen, among them some pretty fair country ball players, but it is also true that sophomores will play a predominate role in any successes the Tigers might earn.

End is the best fortified with lettermen (5) and just after fall practice began Howard moved two fullback lettermen to defensive end. Coupled with this, the flanks number some of the outstanding sophomores in their ranks.

How good the quarterback situation arises again, but actually, the signal callers weren't as bad as it might have appeared last season. Howard blamed many of his troubles on the offensive line, when from the 50-yard line, it looked like a poor job of running and passing.

"I don't think Johnny Unitas would have completed very many for us last season," Howard observed. "We just didn't have the size or manpower that I like to have on the line."

But Howard went on to say he thought now the offense and defense was divided "about like it ought to be" and "I think we have them placed just about right. We asked the boys what they wanted to play—offense or defense—and for the most part, they are playing where they want to. I'd rather have 22 average players where they want to be than 22 good ones doing something they don't care a thing about."

The Tigers started fall practice with an equal number of sophomores in the top 44 players. There were 10 on the first two offensive teams (five on each one) and the same ratio on the top pair of defensive units. Of these 20, 18 are up from last year's freshman team.

The names of Harry Olszewski, Wayne Mass, Edgar McGee, Phil Rogers, Bo Ruffner, Freddy Kelley, Tom Duley, Jimmy Addison, Buddy Gore, Butch Sursavage, Joey Branton, Dan Gunnels, Kit Jackson, Arthur Craig, Jacky Jackson, Dave Burton, Wilson Childers, Ray Mullen and others are likely to pop into the headlines often this fall—not just because they are sophomores but because they are good sophomores.

But while these are earning a niche on the field for Clemson so will ones like John Boyette, Hugh Mauldin, Bob Baldwin, Frank Pearce, Joe Waldrep, Rick Johnson, Don Barfield, Mac McElmurray, Mike Facciolo, Thomas Ray, Bruce McClure, Phil Marion, Charlie Meadowcroft and Hoss Hostetler—just to name a few.

Clemson IPTAY Club . . .

The Clemson IPTAY Club begins its 32nd year of operation September 1, 1965. Because of this, more deserving young men will be afforded an education which might not have otherwise been possible.

IPTAY—I Pay Ten A Year—was born for just one purpose—to finance athletic scholarships at Clemson. That is still the way IPTAY is run today. The money received during the past 31 years has been used for scholarships and scholarships only. No other use is made of the money.

The club is the backbone of athletics at Clemson, supporting all sports—baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, swimming, tennis and track. Without IPTAY, Clemson would be unable to compete successfully with other teams of the Atlantic Coast Conference and other intersectional schools.

IPTAY is no exclusive or secret club such as the founders had thoughts of its being. Anyone, regardless of alma mater or age, can become a member. The men, women and children who are a part of IPTAY are interested in seeing the Clemson Tigers retain a high ranking in their athletic endeavors.

Although there are several versions as to just how IPTAY started, a letter written by the late Dr. Rupert H. (Rube) Fike—the father of IPTAY—to Coach Jess Neely dated Aug. 21, 1934, seems to pretty well pinpoint the exact date of formation. Dr. Fike said in his opening statement of the letter:

“Last night we had a little meeting out at my house (in Atlanta) and organized the IPTAY Club.” He went on to say that those attending the meeting were George Suggs, Gene Cox, E. L. Hutchins, Bill Dukes, J. R. Pennell, George Klugh, Milton Berry, Jack Mitchell and himself.

As close as can be determined, there were 185 people who were members of IPTAY during that first year of 1934-35. Sixty of these are now deceased and of the 125 others, 84, or 67.2 per cent, are still members of IPTAY.

Since IPTAY was formed, Clemson football teams have won 176, lost 112 and tied 13, or 60.3 per cent of their games. For 15 years prior to IPTAY, Clemson won less than half of its football games—or 47 per cent to be exact.

The team and individual championships won and the competitive spirit displayed is proof positive that in IPTAY, Clemson has a unique organization. The money contributed to IPTAY is an investment on which the returns are uncalculable.

First Undefeated Team . . .

This was Clemson's first undefeated football team. It's the 1900 aggregation which ran roughshod over six opponents under the leadership of the late John Heisman. J. N. Walker was captain of the team which defeated Davidson 64-0, Wofford 21-0, South Carolina 51-0, Georgia 39-5, Virginia Tech 12-5 and Alabama 35-0. This was Heisman's first year at Clemson and he was to remain through the 1903 season. His record in four years was 19-3-2 and his teams ran up 731 points to 93 for the opponents.

Heisman's ingenuity in originating plays was one of his strong points. He usually had something new up his sleeve for every game.

John Heisman truly put Clemson on the football map.

Clemson Milestones . . .

Since 1896, when Clemson's first football team took the field, the Tigers have won 325 games and lost 240. Coach Frank Howard, since becoming head coach in 1940., has won 140 games and lost 94. Listed below are the milestone games:

The Century Club . . .

Twelve coaches who are at major football institutions (as classified by the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau) have now won 100 or more games in their careers. The "Century Club" lost one of its members this past season when Dr. Eddie Anderson of Holy Cross retired after 39 years as a head coach and winning 201 games. Buff Donelli of Columbia should enter the charmed circle this season. He enters the year with 99 triumphs. Coach Frank Howard of Clemson ranks sixth in the nation for the most wins in a career. Listed below are the "Century Club" members:

A Note On Clemson . . .

Clemson is located in the northwestern corner of South Carolina, 30 miles from the foothills of the beautiful Blue Ridge Mountains on Highways 123, 76 and 28, and 12 miles from Interstate 85.

The school has grown from an institution of 446 students when it opened its doors in 1893 to the present day enrollment of 5,000 graduate and undergraduate students. The campus proper contains over 25,000 acres of land and is situated on the shores of Hartwell Lake, a 60,000-acre expanse with over 900 miles of shoreline.

Clemson became a reality Nov. 27, 1889 when the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of South Carolina drew up an Act of Acceptance of the will of Thomas Green Clemson.

Clemson gave his Fort Hill Estate to the State for the establishment of an agricultural and mechanical college. Clemson himself was a distinguished scientist of his day and served as the nation's first superintendent (now secretary) of agriculture.

He married the daughter of John C. Calhoun, the noted Southern statesman. Calhoun's home stands restored on the Clemson campus today and is open to the public free of charge.

From the time the school was established until July 1, 1964, the name was Clemson College. Through an act passed by the South Carolina General Assembly, the name of the institution is now Clemson University.

Dr. Robert Cook Edwards, who was first appointed acting president in 1958 following the sudden death of Dr. Robert Franklin Poole, was named president in 1959. At the time of his appointment, Dr. Edwards was head of the university's Department of Development.

Under the post-war administrations of Drs. Poole and Edwards, the Clemson physical plant has grown to meet the rapidly rising needs of the university.

Over six million dollars in new construction has either just been completed, presently under construction, or expected to be started in the near future.

Main projects now being constructed include men's and women's dormitories, library and a million dollar addition to the chemistry and geology building.

The university is composed of six schools or colleges: College of Agriculture and Biological Sciences, College of Arts and Sciences, School of Architecture, College of Engineering, School of Industrial Management and Textile Science, and School of Education.

There are 39 curriculums at the university for undergraduates with graduate work toward a master's degree offered in 33 fields. There are now 19 programs leading to a doctorate degree.

A Brief Flash Back . . .

Clemson fields its 70th football team this fall and embarks on its 26th season under the same man. Sixteen coaches had been at the helm of the Tigers before Frank Howard arrived on the scene, but this one person has been head coach in over 40 per cent of the games Clemson teams have played.

The Tigers played their 600th intercollegiate football game last season against Maryland and won their 325th game against the Virginia Cavaliers during the '65 campaign.

Clemson has been to six post-season bowl games under Howard and the Tigers went to another under Jess Neely. The Tigers have a 4-3 bowl record and the seven appearances are more than any other Atlantic Coast Conference school. In each game Clemson was the underdog.

An early brochure on football at Clemson states that a group of students met in the barracks in Sept., 1896, and organized the first Football Association at Clemson and requested Prof. W. M. Riggs, who was later to become Clemson president, to coach the team.

Prof. Riggs, who had played football at Auburn during his student days, was well equipped to guide the team through its formative period. This is attested by the success of the two seasons he coached and his leadership during the next quarter of a century as head of the Athletic Association at Clemson and an official of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association. This went a long ways in making football the leading sport at Clemson.

The Tigers were 11-6 through the first four seasons, but it wasn't until John Heisman appeared in 1900 that Clemson became known as a football power.

Heisman teams in four years won 19, lost 3 and tied 2 while scoring 731 points and holding opponents to 92. Heisman went on to greater heights at Georgia Tech and it is for him that the Heisman Trophy is named.

The Pendleton Escapade of April 1, 1908, resulted in the expulsion of 306 students, including many football players, and thoroughly demoralized football at Clemson and ushered in the so-called "dark ages", which, except for a few minor resurgencies, was to last for nearly two decades.

Josh Cody arrived on the scene in 1927 to pick up a Clemson team which had experienced five losing seasons in the past seven. Cody's teams in four years won 29, lost 11 and tied 1.

Neely came in 1931 and suffered through three losing seasons before breaking even. But before he left to go to Rice, the Tigers were being respected and playing in their first bowl—the 1940 Cotton.

Howard has continued to field representative Clemson teams and in 25 seasons has finished .500 or better 17 times.

FRANK JAMES (FRANK) HOWARD

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR AND HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

In the words of the Poppa Tiger, "it's time to get the ox out of the ditch."

Not in the habit of losing seasons, Howard is hopeful that last year's season marked by only three wins in 10 tries was just a temporary dip below the .500 mark. In 25 seasons at Clemson, Howard has failed to break even on just eight occasions. Five of these came during and just following World War II and two more in the early '50's when Tigers were in the process of switching to the 'T'. Before the dismal 3-7 performance last fall, the Tigers had had 10 consecutive seasons of success.

This season Howard will make another major switch in his offensive sets. When he succeeded Jess Neely in 1940 Howard kept the single wing intact. Following 12 seasons of using this, the Baron made the switch to the 'T' and stayed with it for the next 13 years. Now he's decided that many aspects of the 'I' formation have merit and the Tigers will be in a new fall design come September.

Howard has been connected with collegiate football 38 years—four as an undergraduate at Alabama, nine as line coach at Clemson and 25 as head coach of the Tigers.

Howard starts Clemson on its seventh decade of football against N. C. State. The Tigers have played 601 intercollegiate games—Howard has been head coach in 245 of these and line coach in another 85, giving him connection with more than half of the contests Clemson has played in a little over 36 per cent of the time football has been in the red hills.

Howard has been connected with eight bowl teams. He is one of 12 active coaches with 100 or more victories. Only five have won more. He has coached in most of the post-season all-star games. His summer clinic trips have carried him to all parts of the United States and Europe. He stopped counting his banquet and after-dinner speeches long ago, and has probably turned down more than he's made. He is one of 15 voting members of the NCAA Rules Committee.

The 56-year-old Howard lives football the year 'round. Chances are you'll see him at Clemson track meets, basketball and baseball games when he's in town. But it's also a good bet that sometime during the conversation, football is going to creep into his line of thought.

Clemson Radio Network . . .

The Clemson Football Network will have a new team in starting its 12th year on the air this fall, but the two voices who will bring Tiger gridiron action are not new in radio and TV circles.

Bill Goodrich, who was hired by WFBC-TV and Radio in June as sports director, will take over the play-by-play of game action; and Monty DuPuy, well-known personality with WFBC, will handle the color end.

The Clemson network, operated wholly by the athletic department, has been one of the most successful anywhere. It is one of the nation's largest collegiate networks, having averaged slightly over 50 stations a game for the past four years.

Goodrich, who has broadcast the Ole Miss games for the past seven years, is a 20-year veteran in radio and has 10 years of television experience. He has had a long list of successful play-by-play years and is no stranger to South Carolina sports fans.

While located with WORD in Spartanburg in the early '50's he did Wofford football and basketball and also play-by-play of the Spartanburg Peaches in the old Tri-State League. Later moving to WSPA-TV for two years, he handled the Clemson football films during 1956 and 1957 and broadcast the '55-'56 Tiger basketball games.

DuPuy, who came to WFBC more than 15 years ago, is considered one of the top announcers in the southeast with an extraordinary ability to interview successfully people from all walks of life, whether they be sports personalities or coaches, or leaders in the fashion world. Monty is also known for his insistence on perfection. A researcher and a statistician, DuPuy's smooth flowing delivery will make an excellent contrast to the hard driving, rapid play-by-play description by Goodrich.

Goodrich, who has been heard on as many as 275 stations on one football broadcast, brings a wealth of talent to the network. The new "Voice of the Tigers" was sports director of WLBT-TV and WJDX Radio in Jackson, Miss., before coming to WFBC.

Clemson football fans will come to know him with his "Oh, mercy" and "Whoop-e-e" during his broadcasts.

Photography Facilities Tops . . .

The Clemson press box is equipped to take care of almost any request for visiting photographers.

Under the guidance of chief photographer Jim Burns, the facilities during a football game are available to any bonafide newspaper, press association or TV cameraman.

A 27-foot open section on the second deck of the press box is reserved for visiting and team movies. If there is remaining space, TV film is also shot from this point. If not, still photographers, as well as movies, have at their disposal the entire roof, which stretches over 30 yards.

Within the press box is a complete dark room where film can be loaded, processed and wire photos transmitted during the game.

Burns and Charles Haralson take game movies, running two cameras (one for coaches and one for TV). The necessary number of prints are made for scouting, exchange with other schools and showing at alumni meetings.

Main use of the TV copy is for the Frank Howard Show, shown on a four-station network the Sunday after each game, originating in the studios of WSPA-TV, Spartanburg, featuring Howard, one of his assistant coaches, with Verner Tate as anchor man.

Tom Shockley, joining the photo staff for the first time this year, will shoot still action from the field for distribution at the end of the game.

The Clemson press box is the only one in the Atlantic Coast Conference (and one of the few in the nation) equipped with a Fotorite machine for rapid print processing. This unit enables pictures of the game to be printed within minutes after being taken.

Any newspaper or TV station desiring to receive this service can do so simply by requesting it. At the end of the game a set of game action pictures (usually six to eight) is brought to the individual at his working space for use in either Sunday or Monday editions.

Last season over 400 pictures of the four home games were printed and this popular service will again be offered this coming season.

The coordinating services of Burns, Haralson and Shockley is just another reason why the Clemson press box has received the two highest awards from the Football Writers Association of America.

Oct. 23—North Carolina at Clemson

Oct. 29—Wake Forest at Clemson

Nov. 15—ACC Meet at Winston-Salem

(NOTE: Furman and The Citadel will probably be added to schedule).

1965-66 Basketball Outlook . . .

Coach Bobby Roberts will be starting his fourth season as Clemson basketball coach this fall and no doubt, is looking forward with anticipation to the opening game.

Roberts saw a group of potentially great sophomores, sprinkled with two juniors, end up with an 8-15 mark last season. But eight of these games were lost by a total of 28 points and seven of the losses were Atlantic Coast Conference games by a total of 19 points. There were two one-point defeats and three games by two-point losses within the ACC.

But Clemson's eight leading scorers, including all five starters, return this fall as six juniors and two seniors. Three of these players averaged in the double figures last season and two were in the eight-point bracket.

Randy Mahaffey led the team in scoring (17.3), rebounds (224) and field goal percentage (49.8) while Jim Sutherland was second in scoring (16.3) and first in free throw percentage (78.3).

Garry Helms (11.2), Buddy Benedict (8.4), Hank Channel (8.2) Ken Gardner (4.5), Joe Ayoob (3.9) and Walt Ayers (3.4) will help make the Tigers a first division contender. Curt Eckard, Dave Demsey and Denny Danko advance from the freshman squad to add bench depth.

The Tigers face their always-tough schedule, playing all seven ACC teams, plus Furman and Georgia Tech, twice each, a single game with Citadel and Christmas-time action in the VPI Invitational and the Poinsettia Classic.
